The 26 cantons of Switzerland

---

Introduction

Would you like to get a canton's most important statistical facts at a glance? Would you like to compare your canton with other cantons or with Switzerland as a whole? As part of its comprehensive range of regional statistical data, every year the Federal Statistical Office makes available on its Swiss Statistics website new cantonal portraits with roughly 70 up-to-date key figures.

The key figures from the interactive online application are compiled in table format in the present publication for a better overview and for everyday use as a work of reference. Data come from the regional database platform Statatlas and in each case show the latest available figures on the reference day indicated (see box below).

The publication appears annually in German, French, Italian and English and is automatically generated from the database. For this reason its layout does not correspond exactly to the usual specifications for FSO publications.

Explanations of data from the Structural Survey

A number of data in these portraits come from the Structural Survey which forms part of the new population census. The following key figures belong to this category:

- Main language
- Religious affiliation
- Employment
- Net activity rate
- Homeownership rate
- Main mode of transport of employed persons
- Education level

The Structural Survey is a random sample survey of 200 000 persons. As random sample surveys are comprised of only a fraction of the population of interest, their findings are always marked by a degree of uncertainty. This uncertainty depends on the size of the sample, the sampling rate, the non-response rate and the distribution of the observed variables in the statistical population. It can be quantified by calculating a confidence interval which grows wider as the results become more imprecise. Such quantification presupposes that the sample has been randomly selected from the statistical population. This is always the case for the Federal Statistical Office's random sample surveys.

Further information on the "confidence interval" can be found in the online glossary (in French, German and Italian):

Due to the uncertainty of the results, no values are shown for cantons with fewer than 50 observations or a coefficient of variation greater than 10%. The confidence interval at 95% should not be more than  $+/- 20\%$  in relation to the value measured. The population includes all persons in the permanent resident population aged 15 or older, except for residents of collective households, diplomats, international officials and their relatives. The reference day coincides with the register survey day (31 December).

Further information on the structural survey can be found online at:

Additional explanations of key figures

Population

Data source: Population and Households Statistics (STATPOP);
Vital statistics (BEVNAT)
The population figures refer to the permanent resident population at year-end.

Residents: permanent resident population as of 31.12.2016

Population density per km<sup>2</sup>: Population measured in relation to the polygon area (excluding lakes > 5 km<sup>2</sup>; swissBOUNDARIES<sup>3D</sup>@swisstopo).

Urban population in %: according to FSO typology «Area with urban character 2012»

Main language in %

Data source: Structural Survey
As respondents were allowed to indicate several languages in the survey, the total may exceed 100%.

Religious affiliation in %

Data source: Structural Survey

Area

Data source: Land Use statistics 2004/09
Point areas; incl. special zones and lakes > 5 km<sup>2</sup>

Work and income

Net activity rate (15–64 years)
Data source: Structural Survey
